St. Patrick's Day Journal

Pretend that you have found a four-leaf clover that will bring you extraordinary good luck for exactly one day. Write about your lucky day.

Draw a large four-leaf clover. In the center write: I am lucky because... Then, write a different way that you are lucky on each of the four leaves.

You have caught a leprechaun, and he has given you a pot of gold in exchange for his freedom. What do you do with it?

A green bow tie.

Do you believe in leprechauns? Why or why not?

What would you do if you saw a leprechaun?

How would life be different if everyone had light green skin and dark green hair?

Plan a St. Patrick's Day party. What will you do? What will you eat?
